Introduction

Project Overview

This database is intended to track the memberships and various media that a given library may store. This should include which items are checked out, for how long, what is overdue, any fees charged to members, and other important details about items available.

Scope

The database will not track the content or condition of every item. It will track the availability of certain items, and the membership fees associated with a client account.